ACROSS EVERY COLLECTION

What's always included.

Documentary craft

Every film is shot naturally, not staged. It is edited to feel like a memory. No directing, no interrupting, no pulling you away from your guests.

A creative consultation

A planning session to map out the story: key moments, key people, and what matters most to the two of you.

A filmmaker who cares

I take on a limited number of weddings each season, on purpose. Every film gets the time and attention it deserves, from the first call through delivery.

Delivery you can plan around

Finished films are delivered within ten weeks, by private online gallery, with download.

No travel fees, Toronto to Niagara

Travel is included anywhere between Toronto and Niagara-on-the-Lake. Muskoka and other Ontario destinations are quoted at cost, with no surprises after booking.

A simple payment plan

A 25% retainer holds your date. Two equal payments follow, three months apart, with the final payment before the wedding day.

Every film begins with a conversation.

Tell me about your day and I'll write back within 24 hours with a recommendation. Most couples book nine to eighteen months out.
